WHETHER WE LIKE IT OR NOT, WA-HI IS PLUGGED IN.

In a world of 3D printed organs, driverless cars, and genetic modification, it's easy to forget our roots. We are constantly plugged into the grid, whether it be through our smartphones, our televisions, or our computers. For some, it can be difficult to imagine life without the convenience technology provides for us. However, sometimes we need to rip the wires that run from our bodies like roots and experience life for ourselves, not from behind a screen.

IT'S TIME FOR US TO UNPLUG.

Classroom Advancements

Before the introduction of digital gradebooks, teachers had to input grades by hand with a red gradebook and a calculator.

CLASSROOM TECH

While technology today can be commonly found in many classrooms, it wasn't always like that. The Walla Walla Public School system got some of their first computers in 1985- they were MacIntoshes.

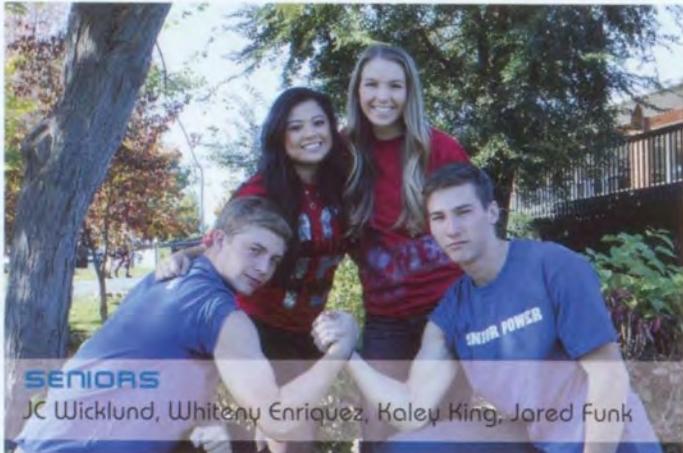

"It is much easier to share information today than it was 30 years ago. For a social studies teacher, the creation of the internet has been helpful. Being able to find answers to student questions with just the press of a few buttons and being able to share information with other teachers around the country instantly has made teaching better."

- Gary Peasley

Wa-Hi's Associated Student Body is an elected group of dedicated students who represent the "voice" of the students. The ASB class works to provide social events for the student body, organizing and coordinating everything from school dances to pep assemblies. ASB also coordinates the annual Hoops for Hearts basketball tournament, which raises money for the American Heart Association. Every year, the ASB class also coordinates Winter Wish Week, which allows students to make a wish for themselves and for a friend in order to show through the granting of wishes that every student is valued.

ASB also puts on Conspiracy of Hope, which is a student-produced talent show which showcases the variety of gifted students in the student body while simultaneously raising money for the Dave Meyer Foundation. The ASB class is filled with students who are passionate about the well-being of the student body and care about the individual welfare of each and every student. ASB students endeavor to create a better, more prosperous school environment every chance they get through hard work coordinating social events for the student body, dedication to the students that they represent, and charity events that donate money to worthy causes.

What is your favorite part of ASB?

Karli Plucker

"I love seeing the impact that we have on our student body, and being part of a community of such great kids."

Lauren Clark

"My favorite part is seeing the reactions of the students to everything we plan. It makes all of our hard work pay off!"

Tara Krivoshein

"I love pumping up the student body; getting the whole school involved. It's fun being involved in the events!"

Braelen Maiden

"Being able to make a difference in our school is so awesome to see. I'm glad to be a part of ASB!"

Arissa Roe

"Be smart, but not too smart."

"The pine stays
green in winter...
wisdom in hardship."

"Set your course
by the stars, not by the lights of every passing ship."

Ryan Rogel

"I recognize that life is a dream, and I dream lucid."

Tasha Seymour
"Life is good, slow down and Seymour."

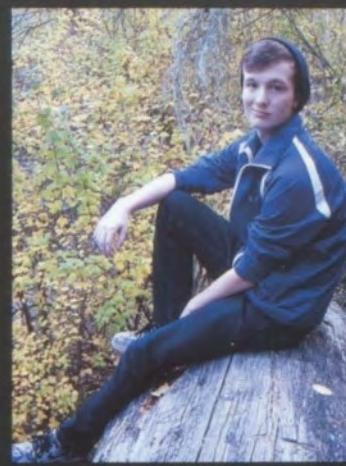

Kaili Shields

"My hope still is to leave the bit better than when I got here."

Sarah Shinstine

"Experiencing Wa-Hi will be one thing we all have in common."

Michael Shuster

"The most useful thing I learned in high school is that it's easier to ask for forgiveness than permission."

Nayley Sifuentes

"What part of queen did you not understand?"

Mason Smith
"Ahoy!"

Sierra Smith

"Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss, you'll land among the stars."

SENTER

"It's not good yet, but it's gonna be great."

To many, Mr. Senter was more than a teacher. He was a mentor, an accomplished director, and a brilliant actor. More than anything, he was a rock. His love and passion for theater was evident in the way he taught his students: with eccentricity and ardor.

He was overflowing with artistic energy, and when his students worked with him, they got a taste of that energy. It was this energy that coursed through him like an electric current when he taught. A student could only ever hope to be conductive enough to absorb some of the energy that flowed off of him, because those who could were destined for a bright future in theater.

Mr. Senter will be remembered for his passion for his students, and it is students that will carry on his legacy of his love for theater.

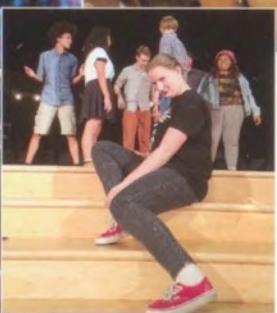

"I know that many students will go on to pursue theater because of Mr. Senter."
- Velia Saldivar

"We're his legacy. We are proof of his genius. He has helped us all become the people we are today. He has not only taught acting, he has taught the art of living." - Téa Steelman

"Mr. Senter's legacy was teaching us that we're not here just for ourselves, we're here to give everything we have to everyone else who deserves it." - Joey Camacho

"Many lives have been changed by this man. He didn't let us give up on ourselves because he saw potential in every student that walked through his door." - Velia Saldivar

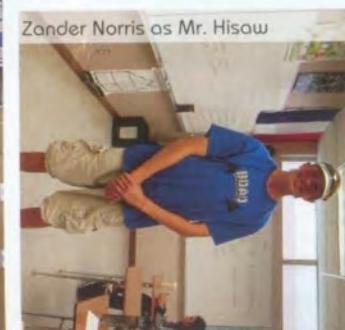

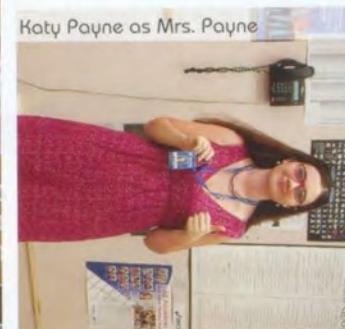

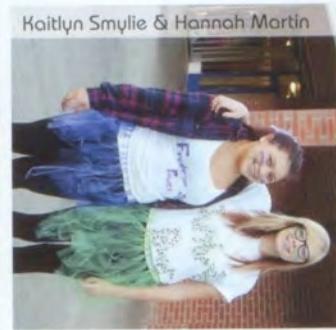

"Unbound from obligations,
reattached to life."

Homecoming Assembly

There were different activities happening at this assembly like WAHL varsity football team cheering with the cheerleaders, and dance contests between each grade. There were multiple performances by the band, choir, and dance team. To top it all off, the Homecoming Court was announced.

Spirit Week

This year during spirit week...

Starting the week off, we have a spirit week assembly that consists of dances, cheers, singing, playing, and the reveal of the Homecoming dance theme. This years theme for Homecoming was "Grease Lightning." Throughout the week, students have been participating by dressing up to fit the theme. During the week of September 21st to Septermber 25th, the themes for each day were; Monday: Class colors day, Tuesday: Dress like your teacher day, Wednesday: Lipstick and bows vs bow tie day, Thursday: Camo day, and Friday: Blue and white day. To help bring the spirit this year, we have our Spirit King, Queen, Prince, and Princess to cheer us on. This years Spirit Court were Nathan Towner, Lauren Clark, Grayson Gillin, and Tara Krivoshein. One of the most interesting part of the assembly was when Layne Peters ran through the gym (multiple times) in a red outfit holding a "Seniors Rule" flag. During first and second lunch, ASB picked a few contestants to participate in a Who-Has-the-Most-Spirit contest. To finish off Spirit week, there was a Homecoming football game at Borleske Stadium following the game, there was a Homecoming dance at WAHI in the small gym.

BUFF PUFF

This years Buff Puff game took place on September 21st in the big gym. Many boys joined to see if they could be the team that wins. The game was intense, there was a lot of great saves and great serves. During the game, someone dressed in all red ran around the gym holding a flag that said "SENIORS RULE!" In the end the team that won was Seniors!

Seniors:

POWDER PUFF

This years Powder Puff took place on September 23rd at Borleske Stadium. Many girls' signed up to bring the crown home for their team. The girls were showing no mercy during the game. Many of the Junior girls tried to do their best to win the game. In the end only one team can have the crown, and that team was Seniors!

Seniors:

HOMECOMING GAME

The Homecoming game was on Friday, September 25. It was definitely a game to remember with a score of 55 - 7; Blue Devils beat Pasco Bulldogs. Just like the dance, the Homecoming game also had a theme to represent our school spirit by wearing blue and white.

Royalty Court: Karlie Plucker, Jason Wicklund, Whitney Enriquez, Kurt Blackman, Katie Wenzel, Andrew Harvey, Kaylee Fullen, Alex Crump, Romey Drabek, Derek Swanson

HOOMEOMING DANCE

With the theme of Grease Lightning, the Homecoming dance was "burning up the quarter mile." As people dressed up as characters from Grease, the dance went out with a bang when the Homecoming King and Queen danced together.

A LONG BRIDGE OVER DEEP WATERS

The Wa-Hi production of A Long Bridge Over Deep Waters shared with audiences a story of life, death, humanity, and what it means to love unconditionally and accept others despite cultural or religious divides. The play was composed of 10 independent scenes that were connected by nothing but recurring central themes and relationships that existed between characters from scene to scene. The play was hand-selected by director Brian Senter to share with the school and community in order to encourage acceptance and open the hearts and minds of his students and audience members alike. The play was received with acclaim, tears, and standing ovations every night, and each performance was closed with an emotional message from the playwright, James Still, addressing the students in the production about the heartbreaking death of their director half-way through the play's production. This play will go down in history as one of Wa-Hi's most touching and humbling plays ever produced.

FAITH

A total of 10 religions were showcased in A Long Bridge Over Deep Waters, including faiths such as Judaism, Islam, and Buddhism.

BACKSTAGE

► It took the average actor between one and one and a half hours to get into full costume and makeup before each show, which doesn't account for the time needed for costume changes during the show itself.

► There are a number of pre-show rituals that consist of singing, dancing, and vocal exercises that are done both by the cast and the crew. These rituals help actors warm up and get their energy flowing.

Magic the Gathering

Magic the Gathering is a basic yet very complex card game to learn and play but once you get the hang of it, it becomes very addicting and very fun to play. This is a game where you create your deck of cards and choose what type of deck and colors you want your deck to be then challenge your friends to battle or team up with them against others. Whether your deck is based upon controlling your opponent's boardstate by killing all their creatures and draining their life and deck or assembling a legion of creatures and overwhelming them.

Black Ops II

Black Ops II is a first-person shooter game where players can choose to be one of six possible characters based off of the class you choose. In the game, there are 23 different game mods players can choose from. Players can fight with friends online, complete solo campaigns, or run around while punching zombies with galvanized knuckles. Black Ops II is considered by many to be a fun and addicting game to play.

At WA-HI, students show people that it is not so hard to do what you want to do. We show every person that walks into this school anything is possible. That it may be hard in the beginning, but it gets easier in the end. From History to Culinary Arts, we push the boundaries of what we can do. We prove that academics can be a thrilling opportunity.

LIFE MOVES TOO FAST

MORE THAN WORDS CAN SAY

"Art is not what you see, but what you make others see." Edgar Degas

At WA-HI students create and connect with people in a variety of ways. We create artwork that shows who we are and what we do. Through their artwork, artists help others to see the world with a unique perspective. Art is not simply what is seen and created, but it is what we make others see and connect with. In ways we can not say, art pulls through to connect us with other people.

Drama Club

Blue Devils take center stage

The Walla Walla High School Drama Club is one of the largest clubs at Wa-Hi, and over the years the club has regularly collaborated with the school to host productions. This year the Drama Club performed a rendition of the Greek tragedy "Antigone" with a little twist—the club took the timeless tale and set it on pirate ships in space, turning King Creon into the fearsome captain of the spaceship "Icarus". Thus, "Space Pirate Antigone" came to be. The play was performed, produced, and directed entirely by Wa-Hi Drama Club students with help from advisor Peggy Payne. The play was put on to raise funds for a club trip to Seattle to see the musical "Newsies".

Behind the scenes
The play "Space Pirate Antigone", put on by the Drama Club, had three showings in the Wa-Hi Auditorium. (Far left) Tireseas the blind prophet, played by junior Sophia Gregoire, exhorts Creon to reconsider his decisions made in regard to the fate of Antigone. (Left) Creon, played by sophomore August Senter, finds his son, played by junior Cameron Haluska, mourning over the body of Antigone, played by sophomore Cassie Dixon.

Yearbook

Making memories in print

The yearbook class this year was overhauled when former yearbook teacher Mrs. Debroeck left to teach at the new high school in College Place, leaving a position open that was filled by this year's yearbook teacher Ms. Delfino. She had quite the task ahead of her because out of all of the students in the 2015-2016 yearbook class, only three students (Keanu Biagi, Sheriece Perez, and Clarissa Vance) had any previous experience in creating a yearbook. The classroom environment was chaotic initially, but because of encouragement from Ms. Delfino and collaboration on the part of the students, the 2015-2016 yearbook became one of the most unique and memorable yearbooks ever made in Wa-Hi's history.

Hard at work!

Even though students receive their yearbook at the end of the year, students involved in yearbook work hard throughout the entire school year to meet several deadlines.

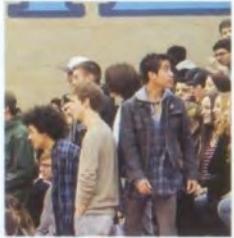

Yearbook students Clarissa Vance and Jacob Haskins work together to complete pages as a deadline draws near.

Winter Wish Week

More than 150 wishes were granted.

Every year, the Walla Walla High School Associated Student Body puts on an event for students called "Winter Wish Week", which concludes in February with an assembly where dozens of students have their wishes granted in front of the rest of the school.

► The assembly stressed both student and teacher involvement. Mrs. Meliah, Mr. Peasley, Mr. Michaels, and Mrs. Cox competed against each other in a questionnaire which lead to reveal the theme for Prom.

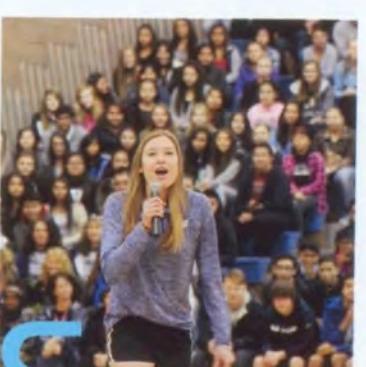

► Pairsoftwinsthatattend Wa-Hi competed against each other in a vicious competition of balloon popping to determine who were the "power twins", leaving Faith & Lauren Hoe tied with Hannah & Paige Gardner.

► Someone wished for Katie Romero to get a dance with JC Wicklund.

Aside from all the laughter and applause, we toned down our excitement and replaced it with some "AWW" moments when some of our students were being asked to Sadies at our Winter Wish Assembly. Which was followed by Quinn McHie making a heart-warming speech about his father, giving them a father-son moment and giving the audience some time to appreciate Mr. McHie for all the things he has done.

Thanks to an anonymous wish, the boys varsity basketball team faced off against the girls varsity team in a lip sync battle. The boys chose to battle with the theme song from "The Fresh Prince of Bel Air" and "Love Story" by Taylor Swift, whereas the girls opted to sing the songs "Baby" and "Hey, yeah". The battle was a close call, however, after an audience vote, the boys varsity team was crowned as the winner.

CONSPIRACY OF HOPE

This years Conspiracy of Hope was filled with a lot of talent. A special thanks to Alex Crump and Derek Swanson for being amazing emcees; Karli Plucker, Jordan Wicklund, and Daisy Schonder for managing the stage; Quinn McHie for working with the lights/music/tech equipment; Kiran Maini and Anne Jones for making the t-shirts that were being sold before the show. A huge shoutout to the stage crew: Kiran Maini, Avery Cortinas, Lauren Clark, Alexis Barreras, Tara Krivoshein, Maddy Redman, Seamus Duffy, Bryar Jensen, Sam Hoe, CC Chantel, Tori Martinez, Kaley King, Mia Barthel, Selina Atkinson, Poppy Small, Alex Meliah, Katherine McMichael, Nattilie Jackson, Whitney Enriquez, and Michael Daniel. The proceeds from these shows will be donated to next years Winter Wish Week and to the Dave Meyer Foundation. The Dave Meyer Memorial Scholarship Foundation provides scholarships to athletic camps for the WA-HI students. Our student's Winter Wish Week involves ASB granting our student wishes, much like the Make A Wish Foundation.

GIRLS SOCCER

Go Team!

Our Wa-Hi girls soccer team dedicated their time to the field. This year our girls definitely took a fall in our soccer scores, although the outcomes of these games weren't that great, we still appreciate these teams! Girls Varsity Soccer this year has been coached by Crystal Evans, while Junior Varsity has been coached by Kimberly Gradwohl, and our C Team Soccer has been coached by Federico Diaz Martinez. With hard work and dedication these girls have made a good effort in bettering our school sports, one kick at a time!

"I learned a lot about myself with a ball at my feet."

GIRLS SWIM

Hannah Gardner, Elena Holtkamp, Hally Ruff, Lacey Klem and Paige Gardner all smile for a picture.

Diving into action.

Alana Budden

Q: What was your best time?
A: "A 27."

Andrea Beko

Q: Why did you join the swim team?
A: "I played soccer freshman year and didn't really like it, so I decided to try something new."

"Home is where the pool is."

This years girls swimming team have definitely made a wave in our schools sports records. These girls worked hard as a team and in return went to state. They dedicated much of their time in the water, both fun and challenging times. We have had a wonderful group of returners, as well as a lot of new girls joining the swim family this year and the outcome of their teamwork was wonderful.

Anna Salazar

Q: Did you set any records?
A: "Yes, I don't remember the time, but I beat the original time."

Mattie Kapocias

Q: What goes through your head while you're in the water?
A: "Since i'm a distance swimmer, it can get kind of boring. Usually I just feel a bunch of adrenaline, but sometimes random songs."

Interviews

What made you join bowling?

Teresa Cobian-Abel:

"I just needed something to do because I never really do anything."

Autumn Chinn:

"Because it was something new and I wanted to have fun."

What was the funniest moment in bowling?

Emma Bradshaw:

"When I dropped a 12 lbs ball, because I usually use 10 lbs balls and when I picked it up it just dropped and rolled back."

Maya Fogg:

"When coach Postlewait fell when he was bowling."

About Bowling

Girl's bowling is a new sport that began last year. Even though it's a new sport, the team gained five more players than last year. It is a sport where you sign up, have fun and go to many different places just to have a great time. Most of all it is all about team work. The bowling team finished 8th at the state championships this year.

GIRL'S BOWLING

Coach of the year: Jason Postlewait

Mr. Postlewait earned the coach of the year award through the help of his players, his coworkers and the other coaches around him. He dedicated his time to teach the players to have good sportsmanship and work hard. He achieved the award by his great coaching skills and through the power of motivating his players to keep doing better throughout the year.

DANCE

This years Wa-Hi dance team participated in different events. They attended UDA dance camp and ran in a 5K run. The dance team performed in 2 competitions, one in Moses Lake and then Districts. Senior Kylee Fullen got the opportunity to travel to Disney World in Orlando to participate in Disney's Christmas Parade.

How many times a week do you practice?

Aime Escalante:
"5 times a week."

Lillian Craig-Ewoniuk:
"3 hours a week and sometimes on the weekend."

Emma Evans:
"Everyday."

Tia Cavaness:
"5 days a week for 2 hours."

BASKETBALL

BASKETBALL "UNPLUGGED" ...

the Varsity Boy's Basketball team spent much of the basketball season travelling throughout the state. They travelled to places like Lewiston to attend a tournament and went to an overnight camp at Gonzaga. Over the course of the entire season, the Varsity Boy's

Basketball team spent an estimated time of 50 hours travelling between games, tournaments, and basketball camps.

The Walla Walla High School Boy's Basketball program

has five basketball teams, making it one of the largest sports at the high school. Varsity basketball games at Wa-Hi are loud, bright, and high-energy spectacles that draw large student sections for every game, where Wa-Hi students cheer on their team while sneakers squeak against the court. This energy found on the court reached its apex when Senior Andrew Harvey, on the varsity team, scored the winning point on the buzzer during a tie game with Chiawana. The Varsity Boy's Basketball team ended up going to Regionals after a great season.

Swim Season

Swim meets are more than just a trial of the fittest, it also tests your determination, and strength of mind.

"The most rewarding part was meeting new people, having new experiences."

Noel Lopez Gallegos

"The final meet, 'cause even though I wasn't the best on the team, I still gave it my all and earned 1/4 a point for my team."

Ryan Manny

"Being around the team, watching everyone grow, and improve."

Zachary Cobb

Question:
What was the most rewarding thing about doing swim this year?

You might think it would be easy to swim a few laps in a heated pool but these boys are some serious athletes.

Andrew Granchukoff vs Hanford High School

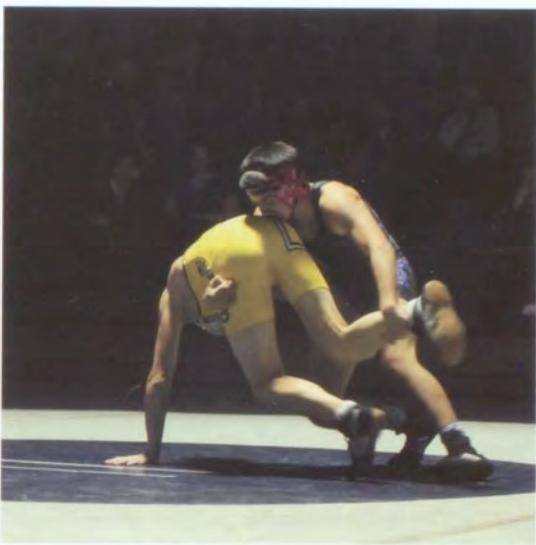

Justin Evans vs Kennewick High School

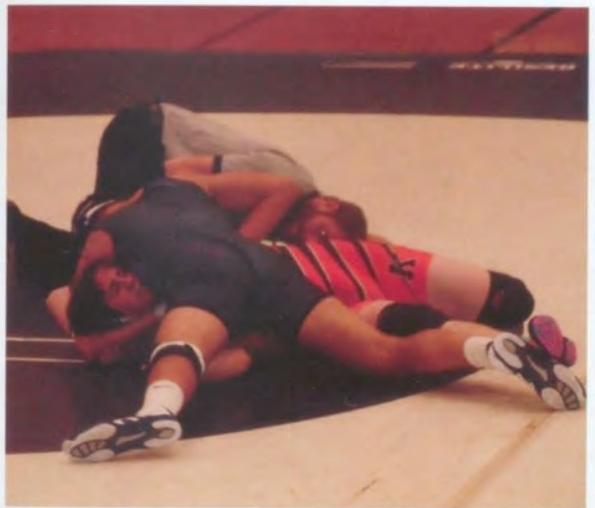

Wrestling is one of the hardest sports at Walla Walla High School. The wrestlers put in about 2 hours of practice. During the practices they have to carry people on their back while running up and down the gym bleachers 10 times without any breaks. The team did an excellent job this year. They won 6 matches and lost 2. Wa-Hi cannot wait to see what is to come next year.

What is your biggest improvement in wrestling?

Ely Kimball

"I have gotten a lot stronger and I have beaten opponents I lost to in the past."

Skylar Ruiz

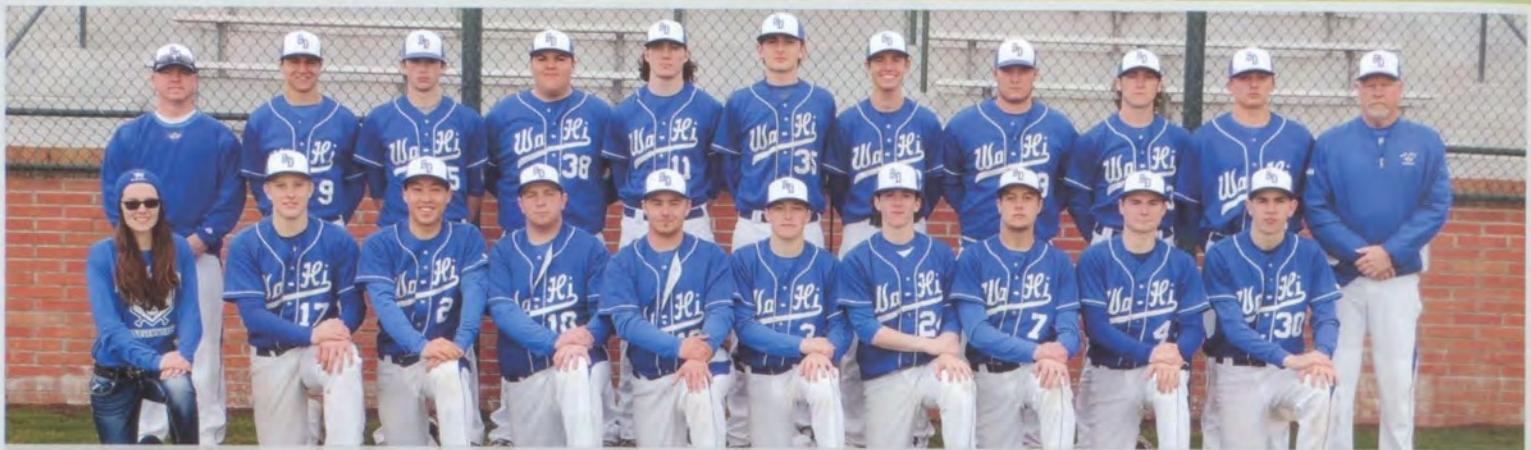

"The amount of pins I've made."

Robert Gonzalez

"At my old school last year, I didn't know a lot of pins. I know a lot more pins this year."

The Wa-Hi baseball teams of the 2015-2016 school year are filled with students that are overflowing with the hard-working Blue Devil spirit. They prove it through their dedication to the sport and the energy they display during games.

How do you balance your school work, social life, and baseball practice?

Parker Likes:

"I try to start on homework at home first then go straight to baseball practice. 'Gotta be a scholar before an athlete.'"

Dexter Aichele:

"I do the homework as fast as possible, so I'll have a lot of free time and then afterwards, I go to baseball practice."

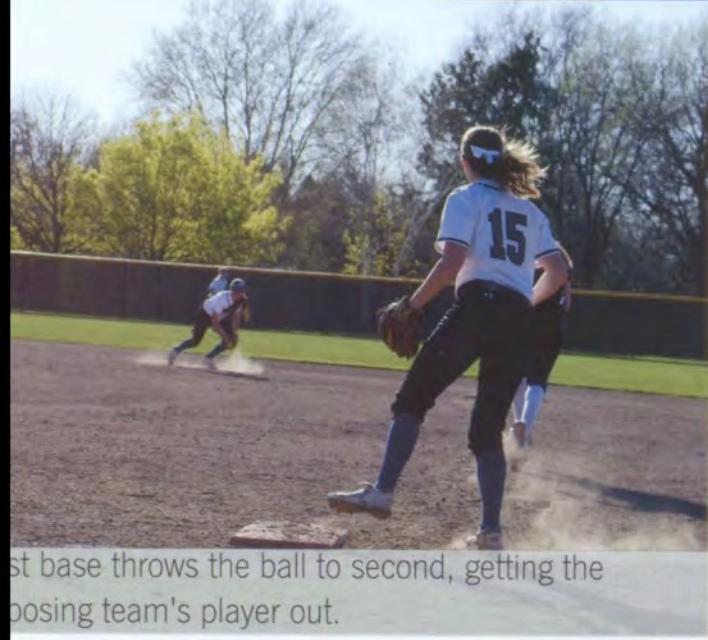

Alexander Bennett:

"Just focus on priorities, school comes first."

WA-HI

MUSICALS

UNPLUGGED

The set for The Little Mermaid was so big that it took an entire week of labor and dozens of people to create.

Rick Garrett was in charge of directing technical effects, which were the icing on top of the cake of the show.

Caleb Leitch directed the choreography of the show with the help of Emma Crawford.

ASK THE CREW

"What is your favorite song from The Little Mermaid?"

Samuel Wells

A: The reprise of "Poor Unfortunate Souls."

Paulina Ochoa

A: "She's In Love."

Kyla Gonzales

A: "Poor Unfortunate Souls."

TIMELESS SCENES

1. "Kiss the Girl", where Sebastian serenades Ariel and Eric (Derek Swanson) during a romantic boat ride..
2. "Poor Unfortunate Souls", where Ursula (Talia Grandstaff) persuades Ariel to give up her soul in exchange for legs.

UNDER THE SEA . . .

Ariel is a 16 year old mermaid with big dreams. She frequently visits the surface of the ocean with her flippered friend named Flounder, which earns her score from her father, Triton, the king of the sea. When she saves a prince during a fateful storm where he falls off of his ship during a storm, she wants nothing more than to be human. This lands her in hot water when she makes a deal with the sea-witch Ursula, who offers her legs in exchange for her voice and her immortal soul if she cannot kiss the prince within 3 days of being on the surface."

"LISTEN TO ME,
THE HUMAN WORLD IS A MESS!"

TOP: Sebastian (Trevor Kytola) hides, with a terrified look glued on his face, from a french seafood chef (Justyn Filan)

BOTTOM: A squid (Sarah Gibbs) and a sna (Kailee Hudson) create a heart with their arms while Sebastian serenades Prince Eric and Arie during "Kiss the Girl"

The Little MERMAID

Everything about this production is big- a large cast and crew, big musical numbers, a big set, and even bigger audiences!

When it was announced that the Walla Walla High School Drama Department would be putting on The Little Mermaid as its Spring production, the air was buzzing with excitement. This is the first Disney musical adaptation the school has done since Beauty and the Beast, which was done during the 2006-2007 school year, 9 years ago. Since the magic of Disney hasn't graced the Wa-Hi Auditorium in so long, students couldn't wait to be involved in the show, which is demonstrated by the sheer size of the cast and crew of this show. During rehearsals, there were sometimes upwards of 100 people in the auditorium including cast, crew, musicians, directors, and producers. It took months of practice for actors to learn lyrics, lines, and intricate choreography. Director Kristin Glaeser says of her students, "dfjgfjfg iughfug fiughfugi fjhgfig fghi fjighfh ifhgijh fighfi uifghiu fhgidfugh iufdhgfdigh." Months of hard work put in by countless Wa-Hi students produced a beautifully staged musical that the entire school is proud of.

"SOMEBODY'S GOTTA
NAIL THAT GIRL'S FINS
TO THE FLOOR!"

"POSITOOVITY"

Scuttle and his posse of female companions sing a musical number titled "Positoovity", unique to the musical, to lift the spirits of Ariel.

LEFT: The french chef brings in a wedding cake to celebrate the betrothal of Ariel and Eric.

TOP: Princesses and gentlemen (left to right: Malyn Osborn, Chris Stites, Emily Coleman, Alex Crump) gasp when Ariel shows up to a contest that will determine who Prince Eric will marry.

"Do you relate at all to the character that you play in The Little Mermaid? Why or why not?"

DEREK SWANSON // Eric

"I hope not, because Prince Eric is an idiot. Actually, I guess I do relate to him."

HATTY PAYNE // Aquata

"Yes, we both go after what we want. But Aquata would actually fight someone, I'd just threaten to fight someone."

TREVOR HYTOLA // Sebastian

"Yup! We both try really hard to make sure that everyone else is happy."

Retiring Staff

Gary Peasley

26 years at
Wa-Hi

1. I have taught 9th grade science, 19th Century US History, AP US History, American Government and Northwest History.

2. I will miss my colleagues, my students.

3. There were many. Too many to mention in the classroom, and too hard to quantify. In coaching the memories are easier to pinpoint. Having my team go undefeated in 2012 was a highlight and going to the state basketball tournament with the basketball team in 88,89,90,91, 2009 and 2010 were especially gratifying. I watched a lot of young men work very hard to achieve at a consistently high level. I am very proud to have been apart of it all.

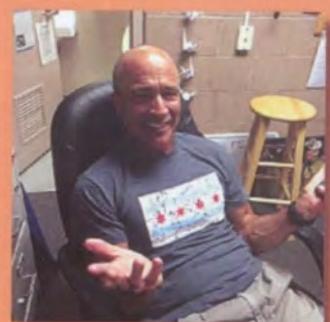

4. Go to the bathroom whenever I want !!! Work a little. Travel some. Hunt and fish until I collapse!

5. Twice I have been to the east coast of the United States specifically for learning more about my subject area. I went and toured Civil War battle sites for a week with Marc Random and the late Blair Graybill in the 1990's. I also attended a two week seminar through the University of Virginia and Stratford Hall(birthplace of Robert E. Lee). We were fortunate enough to travel to many historic places in Virginia and spend the 4th of July having a barbecue at Thomas Jefferson's home "Monticello".

Scott Tibbling

30 years at
Wa-Hi

1. I have taught reading, special education, health, and physical education in my 30 years at Wa-Hi.

2. I will miss the daily banter and interaction with the teenage life form. This is the best job in the world. I get to harass kids and get paid for it! lol

3. A long, long time ago the baseball team let me hang out with them while they won the Washington state championship. I also got to hang out with Keith Gradwohl for 30 years and learn many, many Gradyisms.

4. I am going to work on mastering the art of jeet kune do, learn how to shoot pistols competitively, hang out with my wife and family in our motor home, and travel the world. I am going to do my best to live by the mantra "it is better to wear out than to rust out."

5. The farthest place I have been to date is Singapore and various countries in southeast Asia. My wife and I will be headed to Ushuaia in Tierra del Fuego, Argentina in a few months, though.

Questions we asked these retiring staff members:

1. What subjects have you taught at Wa-Hi?
2. What are you going to miss about working at Wa-Hi?
3. What has been your most memorable moment at Wa-Hi?
4. What are you going to do during your retirement?
5. Where was the farthest place you have gone to visit?

Jackie Lewis

7 years at
Wa-Hi

John Herr

36 years at
Wa-Hi

1. I have taught Special Education Math while here at WAHI.

2. The thing I will miss the most at WA-HI are the people, especially the students.

3. I really don't have one most memorable moment. Each year the most memorable is seeing the students graduate.

4. When I retire I plan to do some volunteer work, spend time with my Grandchildren, and go on a mission with my husband for our church.

5. The farthest place that I have traveled was to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

1. I have taught Drafting (by hand and computer) and 3-D modeling, Applied Math, Woods, Basic Math, Credit Retrieval, US History, and Study Skills. Drafting, math, and woods were my primary subjects taught, the others were on a one-year basis.

2. I will miss the students. I have enjoyed having kids in class who then graduate and come back and tell me the successes they have had and how classes I taught helped them to achieve success.

3. Seeing students work hard and graduate.

4. My wife and I have two grandkids and we will do things with them and our kids. We love to hike, backpack, and camp and work in our yard and do home projects. We will do the things we have let go while teaching.

5. When in high school I went to the UK and France with my parents. My dad was part of the D-Day invasions and wanted to see where he had been during the war and visit friends he had made in the different places. My wife and I have driven all over the US and will continue to do so.

AFTER YOU PLUG BACK IN . . .

remember there's a real world out there that's not on a screen.

Looking up from your screen

Social media provides this generation with countless luxuries, but when you have the opportunity, remember to unplug every once and a while. Wa-Hi students unplug by acting in plays, playing sports, studying hard, and helping the community. How do you?

"It's important for kids to unplug from technology because it distracts people from what they really need to be doing. People should just sit down and talk to each other instead of just sending each other messages."
